THE CAMPUS BY DON CULBERTSON

Foreword

It has been our desire to present to you — students and faculty — a 1950 Hyakem holding the memories of events and activities which have made this year a memorable one. This volume with its display of campus views through its composite snaps is a record of your struggles, successes, and defeats—in work and play.

It is our hope that it has captured the elements which compose these activities and the spirit found at CWCE.

President's Message

Campus scenes, buildings, professors, fellow students, friends—these are the items in our memories of college that we enjoy. The Hyakem is full of these phases of college. Students and faculty and friends alike refer to the Hyakem many times in years that follow. We are grateful that the Editor and Staff have published this book. They have done much planning and spent many hours in careful work that we may have a record of the 1949-50 college year.

Central has had a good year. There has been an abundance of talent in all of the organizations and our athletic, musical and dramatic activities have been of an unusual quality. I believe that Central has rendered a larger service to the State than in any year of its history. In addition to the largest residence enrollment we have had a busy year in off-campus service such as extension classes, work shops, student teaching, conferences, and clinics.

We extend to the seniors our very best wishes as they graduate and depart from the campus. May they have successful years ahead. Central will be glad to welcome them back for as many visits as they can arrange. Best wishes!

Robert E. McConnell, President

Dedication

To Dr. Loron Sparks, the man who has done "everything there is to do in teacher education at this institution," we dedicate the Hyakem for 1949-50.

In 1913 when Dr. Sparks first joined the staff he was named assistant director of teaching training and head coach. Since that time he has watched Central mushroom and spread from 200 students to one of 1,500.

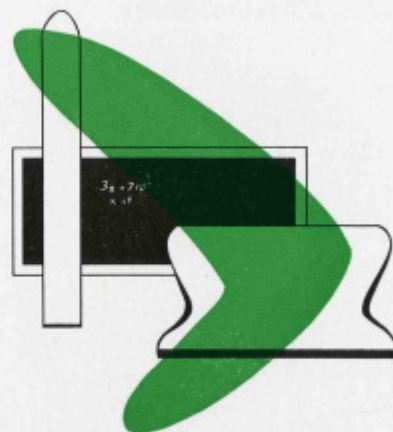

Sports have long been one of the veteran's chief interests since entering the institution. After leaving coaching he was active on the athletic committee and for several years served as its chairman. He wrote the constitution for the old Tri-Normal conference.

Students on the Central Washington campus will remember Dr. Sparks as outstanding in his association with the Intercollegiate Knights. He was the original advisor of the group serving from 1924 until 1947.

One of the most satisfying things about his work, he said, "was seeing our training school grow from a position of leadership in the state to national leadership."

On his resignation from Central, Dr. Sparks sums up his feelings by saying, "There is something interesting in the life of an individual who has grown with an institution professionally. At the time of reaching the point of separation, there is a strong feeling of regret of leaving this institution at the time of its greatest growth, both in numbers and in an improved professional program. When you approach the point where you are no longer of service to something that has been an integral part of your life, you are led to the point of view when you wish there were no such thing as old age."

Classes

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Row 1—Mary Horton, Claude Fredricks, Gerhard Dieckmann.
Row 2—Lois Dryden, Dale Knutson.

Senior Class

The seniors began their last year on the campus by electing officers in October. They elected Gerhard Dieckmann, president; Dale Knutson, vice-president; Lois Dryden, secretary-treasurer; and Mary Horton and Claude Fredericks, social commissioners.

In January, the annual Senior Sno-Carnival was held. An afternoon of skiing and other snow activities was followed by dancing in the evening.

But seniors are a studious lot; there is not much time for social activities—unless you take life easy and decide to become a teacher!

Seriously though, the seniors do look back, a little sadly, on the years at Central, but forward eagerly to the future. A future made bright by the friendships made and the scholarship attained at CWCE.

JUNIOR OFFICERS

Row 1—Barbara Jensen, Bill Hiblar and Avis Face
Row 2—Don Duncan and Barbee Nesbitt

Junior Class

To lead the activities of the junior class during the year officers elected were Tom Millar, president; Barbee Nesbitt, vice-president; Bill Hiblar, treasurer; Avis Face, secretary; and Barbara Jensen and Don Duncan, co-social chairman. Mr. Klingbeil served as advisor for the class. Barbee Nesbitt took over the duties of president during winter quarter while Tom Millar was in Wenatchee practice teaching.

"Swiss Chalet" was the name given to the dance sponsored by the class in the fall. Clever decorations including a fireplace of paper with davenports and skis carried out the intended theme.

The high spot on the junior class calendar was the annual barn dance held February 10. Intermission featured the presentation of prizes for the beard-growing contest, in which an unusually large number of students entered.

The class also took an active part in Sweezy Day and sponsored the annual junior-senior picnic.

Row 1—Pauline Lee and Jeanne Clement

Row 2—Dick Martinen, Bill Jarrett, and Harry Dixon

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class started out the 1949-50 school year by electing Dick Martinen, president; Harry Dixon, vice-president; Jeanne Clement, secretary-treasurer; and Paula Lee and Bill Jarrett, co-social chairman.

An old-fashioned grease pole fight between the freshmen and sophomores gave the sophs the privilege of lighting the Homecoming bonfire. Dean Fisk acted as referee for the bout with the W Club patrolling the area.

The class gave a Homecoming skit, "The Old West," and received honorable mention. They also entered a ship called the U.S.S. Sweezy in the parade, winning first prize.

On February 17, the sophs gave their annual tolo, "Cupids Informal." The decoration committee headed by Chuck Berrisford had the gym cleverly decorated with large red pillars, hearts, and cupids. Russ Porter reigned as King Cupid for the evening. The Music Makers furnished the music for a delightful evening of dancing.

FRESHMAN OFFICERS

Row 1—Dick Alm and Bob Iverson
 Row 2—Jeannine Nelson and Shirley Husby
 Row 3—Sam Green

Freshman Class

Following last year's example of electing new officers each quarter, the 1949-50 freshman class had a good representation from the class.

The class started its social events with a bang at Homecoming. The traditional bonfire was one of the biggest ever made, with the greased pole contest one of the fightingest ever staged at Central.

The winter officers started their term with the direction of the Mardi Gras, one of the most colorful dances of the year.

Spring quarter the class opened their ice cream booth on the carnival grounds for Sweezy Day. The climax of a very eventful year was the freshmen picnic which was a huge success for everyone concerned.

The freshman class decided that the traditional green beanie deserved more recognition. They received permission from the SGA to control the regulation of beanies which was formerly handled by the halls. Next year the freshman will be required to wear green felt beanies.

Mr. Hobson served as advisor for the freshman class for the second year in succession.

QUEEN EDEE

them. This year's Homecoming was especially set up to welcome back 25-year alumnus, not only graduates, but also students who had attended but who had not graduated.

The greased pole fight took place on Friday night with the sophs again emerging the victors. The frosh had built a gigantic bonfire that was lit by the sophomores. Following the serpentine around the fire, a dance and games were held in the Campus Club.

Saturday morning everyone on campus was either busily rushing to finish floats to ride on or jockeying for a position on the sidewalk to view the many cleverly decorated floats that entered the Homecoming parade through town.

In the afternoon the big event was the Homecoming football game between Central and Western Washington College. The big blow came when the Central team was trounced by the Western squad.

That evening two dances were held, one in the new gym with Walt Curtis' orchestra, and a second in Sue Lombard Hall with the orchestra of Larry McVey. These dances were very well attended by everyone.

On Sunday the annual organization breakfasts were held and other activities ceased so that the participants could attend church services.

The Homecoming buttons for this year were designed by Snuffy Jenkins and were very favorably received and enjoyed.

Homecoming signs were more numerous than usual and many of them were very cleverly lighted, with such examples as the Test-Your-Strength concession and the Wheel of Fortune.

Homecoming

Homecoming is an event that everyone—student, faculty, and alumni—look forward to eagerly. The year 1949-50 lived up to all expectations with one of the best Homecomings to be presented at Central in many a year.

Committee chairmen Tom Millar, Gene Montague, Don Fenton, Larry Lindberg, Dick Norman, Marilyn Dreher, Avis Face, Tommy Knutson, Bill Ranniger, Liz Slater, Lou Keene, and Dot Safreed put a great deal of effort into preparations to make this Homecoming the affair that it was.

To set the celebration off to a good start the Kickoff Radio Broadcast was given on Wednesday night, November 2, with the coronation of Queen Edee Sandberg and Princesses Eva Eyres and Lorraine Temple.

The next two evenings were taken up by the skits which were original and well done. The skits were presented two evenings to give everyone a chance to see

More than ever before representative students have participated in planning activities or in attempting to solve problems concerned with student life at CWC. Every student is a member and has a voice in all matters. The main business of the organization is handled by an executive council elected by the students.

The Student Government Association was formed in 1942-43 with the purpose of providing every student on the campus with a more satisfactory college life, in respect to fostering social and organizational activities and administering a democratic and co-operative form of government to the extent of its jurisdictional powers.

The representatives elected for their respective areas for 1949-50 were:

Kennedy, Celia Fiker; Sue Lombard, Grace Cook; Kamola, Marilyn Dreher; Off-Campus Women, Dorothy Uusitalo; Off-Campus Men, Milt Dallman; Walnut, Len Oebser; Munson, Don Duncan; Verville, Hal Boettcher.

The other three voting members of the Council are the President, Vice President, and the Secretary. The Campus Crier editor is also considered a member of the Council, though without voting power. Margaret Hedstrom and John Eyres were the Campus Crier Editors this year. Norma Satterlee was the S.G.A. Publicity Chairman.

The activities promoted this year by the S.G.A. were: Freshman Orientation program, Homecoming, establishing an S.G.A. storeroom for the storage of social equipment, establishing an S.G.A. used bookstore, the Colonial Ball, Senior Day, Sweezy Day, taking part in the Regional National S.G.A. convention at the University of Washington, delegates to the Evergreen S.G.A. conference at the College of Puget Sound, Variety Show, Caravan to Cheney, and plans for a new Student Union Building and a Commons were drawn up with construction starting the summer of 1950.

Members of the Honor Council this year were Dale Knutson, Mary Horton, Mary Nelson, Duncan Bonjourni, Jean Anderson, and Gene Mayer.

INTER-VARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship on the campus here at Central was very active this year. The purpose of the group is "to provide fellowship and instruction for Christian students and to present the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ to the student body." A program designed to carry out this purpose was conducted by an able body of officers.

Outstanding during the Fall Quarter was the week-end retreat to Bible Rock. The hardy folks hiked two miles from the camp to the Rock, while others took pictures of it from the road. All students welcomed their special guest speaker, "Pop" Riley, who, by the way, was a mighty good hiker.

The group also sponsored a Gym Party which proved to be a lot of fun. This later developed into a "rec. nite" held every two weeks during Winter Quarter. Everyone enjoyed these times of singing and playing games.

Spring Quarter featured the annual Dessert Supper on the night of Sweezy Day and a second retreat to Bible Rock.

CAMPUS CLUB COMMITTEE

The Campus Club Committee was organized for the control, maintenance and use of the Campus Club building. The building, brought to the campus in 1946, provides the students with a place to meet fellow students and enjoy different types of recreation.

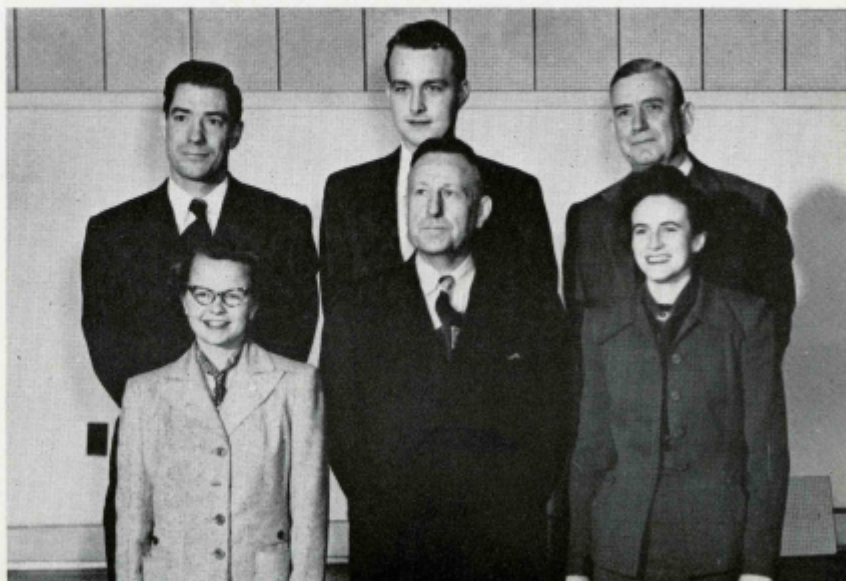

The committee accepts and discusses suggestions submitted by organizations as to how the building should be run. One of the main problems this year was whether or not the Campus Club should be open to individual dorms and groups for private parties. It was agreed upon that any two nonconsecutive weekend nights out of the month be used for private parties if no all-college functions are scheduled at the student's gym.

The committee gave approval to the Campus Crier to make their headquarters in the Campus Club for a more attractive and more easily accessible place. They also gave an OK for a mural to be put on one of its office walls. They also provided a juke box for the students through the S.G.A.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

The Associated Women Students is better known on the campus as the OWS. It is composed of all the women on the campus. They are active in social functions all through the year.

The students are welcomed at the beginning of the year with two coffee hours. Next comes the annual formal dance, the Snowball. At Christmas the AWS sponsors a coffee hour for the students and faculty. During the year they take part in activities and sponsor mixers. This year the AWS had an opportunity to act as hostess to the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Queen and court.

To encourage high scholarship and to be of help to students supporting or partially supporting themselves, AWS offers two scholarships. One goes to a girl living off campus and one to a dormitory girl. These scholarships are based on character, scholarship, and being at least partially self-supporting. They are contingent upon returning to school in the fall.

A scholarship plaque is presented to the living group with the highest scholarship for the year. AWS also has a student loan fund which is available to all girls.

The AWS sponsors a sophomore honorary, the national organization chapter of the Spurs. It is based on scholarship and activeness. Spurs is a service honorary to offer help wherever needed.

The Associated Women Students are governed by the elected council and the presidents of all women's organizations on the campus. The council also includes two advisors, Mrs. Annette Hitchcock and Mrs. Dunnington. The officers for the year were Evelyn Cain, president; Mary Lou Stuart, vice-president; Nancy Vick, secretary; Edith Sandberg, treasurer; Rosemary Milhofer, Mary Lou Stuart, Joyce Bonathan, social chairman; and Esther Tuomi, courtesy chairman.

DANCE CLUB

During spring quarter the dance club joined with the choir to present its annual concert. The outstanding number of the evening was Carousel. The dance club performed at the front of the stage with the choir forming the background for the number. Dances included on the program were "This was a Real Nice Clambake", "You'll Never Walk Alone", "Blow High, Blow Low", "If I Loved You", and "June is Busting Out All Over."

Eva Eyres was elected to serve as president; Jackie White, vice-president; and Lavelle Miller, secretary-treasurer.

LouAnne Tipton was jolly old Saint Nick for the performance given by the club during the Christmas program.

A highlight of the year was the presentation of "Lenox Avenue" for the mothers during mother's day weekend. Angela Green gave an exceptionally fine performance as the "man from down south". Other outstanding dancers were Martha Williams and Gloria Grace as a duet team and Eva Eyres and Lavonda Gilchrist as a dance team.

Miss Shirley Nelson, the advisor for the club, deserves much credit and praise for the splendid work she has done. All the girls are very sorry to see Miss Nelson leave, but hope she has a very nice time in her traveling.

The twenty sophomore girls of the self-perpetuating organization are chosen from freshmen girls on the basis of the above qualities and scholastic standing.

The purpose of Spurs is to be of service to the college in every possible way. This year's duties included ushering, helping with freshman registration, serving at A.W.S. teas, etc.

INTERCOLLEGIATE KNIGHTS

Gil Brooks, Harry Bush, Dominica Tobia, and Dick Schlenga

In 1919, the I.K.'s were first begun on the campus of the University of Washington calling themselves the "Knights of the Hook." Their objective was to render all possible service to the school and maintain its high standards of tradition.

The name "Knights of the Hook" was chosen because of the close relation to the duties of the knights of old—namely, Service, Sacrifice, and Loyalty, which have been maintained as their motto.

The Claw Chapter became affiliated with the Intercollegiate Knights in 1925.

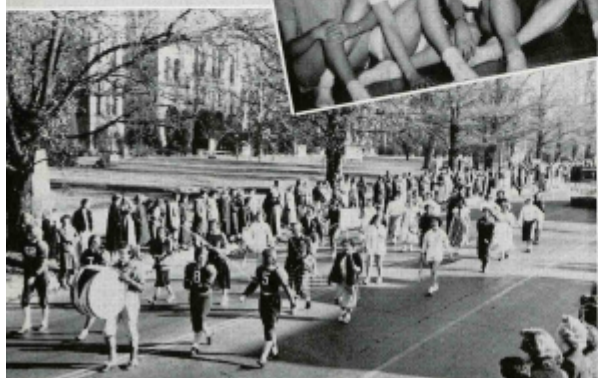

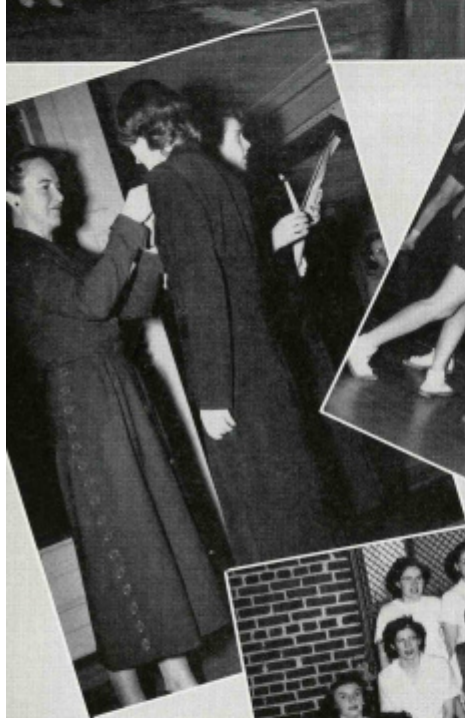

The election of the Homecoming Queen is centered around the I.K.'s. Also an annual get together is held during Homecoming week.

Another tradition among the Intercollegiate Knights is the traditional banquet held after the New Member vs. Old Member basketball game whereby the loser gets the privilege of footing the bill.

Officers were: Don Lowe, Duke; Dominica Tobia, Scribe; Dick Schlenga, Chancellor; Don Erickson, Historian; Lyle Evans, Jester; Chalmers Musgrove, Expansion; and Jack Blaine, Guard. Mr. George Eogge is advisor for the club.

I.K.'s

WOMEN'S RECREATION ASSOCIATION

The Women's Recreation Association was first organized as the Women's Athletic Association. In the early history of the WAA girls received awards on the basis of perfect attendance in Physical Education classes and participation in special outings such as breakfast hikes and cookouts, sleigh riding, skating, and skiing parties. The sports program was later added which today constitutes the most significant part of the club. In 1944-45 the club changed its name to Women's Recreation Association. The purpose of WRA is to provide comradeship, fun, and recreation for all girls interested in sports.

Leadership for the year was handled by Eleta Adolph, president; Donna Simmons, vice-president; Helen Dallas, secretary; Georgiene McCoy, manager; Edna Hyatt, assistant; and Dona Sears, social chairman. Miss Jesse Puckett acted as advisor.

To become a member of the WRA a girl must participate in two sports during one school year. The club initiated thirty new members into the organization this year. Initiation was held twice during the year.

For the first time in many years the WRA entered in the Homecoming events. Girls dressed in different sports apparel for the sports presented by the WRA and marched in the parade. A large black and red "wrecker" was placed in front of the Administration building for the sign contest.

An annual event was the semi-formal banquet held at the New York Cafe. The "Hoop Finale" provided an opportunity for all the girls and Physical Education women faculty to become acquainted.

The final event of the year was the overnight camping trip. The number of girls was limited to twenty with the trip a secret to discourage visitors. A program of archery, softball, volleyball, hiking, and eating was enjoyed by all.

W CLUB

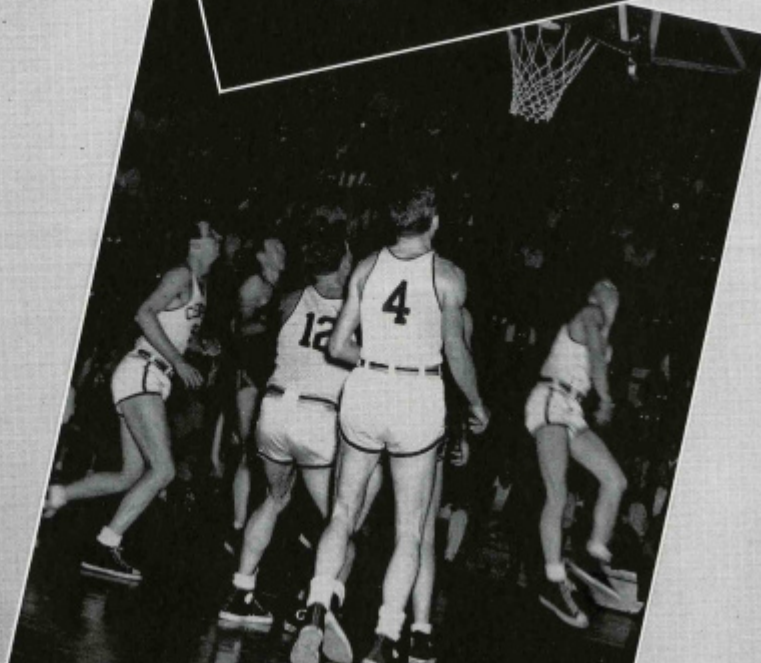

When the Crimson W Club was organized is not definitely known but it has probably existed since the time when intercollegiate athletics started. The purpose of the organization is to bring together in one group all letter winners in varsity sports. The officers for this year were: President, Ray Smith; Vice-President, Billy Lee; Secretary-Treasurer, Milt Dallman; Sergeant at Arms, Don Pugh; Advisor, Mr. Nicholson.

This year the club has done quite a number of things together, which includes work, recreation and eating. At all of the football and basketball games there were W Club men to sell programs and at the football games they were selling hotdogs and coffee.

Again this year they had the pleasure of electing the Colonial Ball Queen and of crowning her on the evening of February 24. During the winter quarter they sponsored another dance. This time it was the Varsity Ball, a sports dance, held on March 11. After having a wonderful time trying to dance every known dance, the couples came home with a picture of one of the basketball players. Yes, you guessed it; they were ones taken from the gym walls. The club presented two smokers this year, one during fall quarter and another during the spring quarter.

For the Student Government Association the W Club purchased a large new trophy case as the old one was quite inadequate.

To top the year off, they held their annual W Club picnic at the Swauk Recreation Bowl. During this time they held the initiation of all new members.

Herodoteans

Herodoteans have been an active group on the Central Campus since its formation in 1923 by Mr. Fish, our former history professor. At that time, only a select group of History students were eligible; now students of the various social sciences are accepted.

The purpose of Herodoteans is to stimulate a deeper interest in matters relating to history, contemporary social problems, and international relations. In their meetings they have viewed several films of social interest and have discussed world topics with outside speakers.

Traditions include the following: one or two initiations a year, a Homecoming breakfast, a waffle breakfast, and a bean feed in the spring. This year the group sponsored a skit for Homecoming.

Officers for 1949-50 have been Frank Duntley, president; Al Moffat, vice-president; Mary Elizabeth Hayes, secretary; Jim Ashbaugh, treasurer. Co-advisors for the club are Dr. J. Richard Wilmeth and Dr. Samuel R. Mohler.

The Whitbeck Club was organized for students who are majors or minors in geography. The club holds its meetings at the residence of Dr. Reginald Shaw.

His home is the scene of many informal meetings with lectures and slides.

One of the most enjoyable meetings during the year was a doughnut feed served by Mrs. Shaw.

The purpose of the Pep Club is to organize the cheering section at games in order to give better support to the cheerleaders.

This year the Pep Club decorated the goal posts for homecoming and sold pom poms, sweetie flowers, and rooter hats of black and red. At basketball games they sold popcorn balls and during half-time at one game a squad of Pep Club girls presented a drill.

Officers of the club this year were Norma Satterlee, president; Gloria Lotzgesell, vice-president; Maxine Hart, secretary; Donna Hoffman, treasurer; and Dorothy Davis, historian.

Central Band

From the opening home football game in the fall of 1949 to the final concert at commencement in the spring, the 1949-50 school term was a highly successful one for Director Bert Christianson and the 70-piece band.

With many interesting and clever marching maneuvers the Central group maintained its fine reputation as a marching unit with drum major Jim Smith and assistant Waldie Anderson leading the way.

During winter quarter the band toured the Yakima Valley schools where the instrumentalists were enthusiastically received by the high school audiences.

A special sidelight of each tour was the CWCeans, the 16 piece dance orchestra composed entirely of concert band members.

Next on the band's full schedule was the spring tour taken during the spring vacation. Jim Smith's German band provided the feature musical entertainment on this tour.

On May 19 the second annual "Band Blare" proved to be one of the biggest social events of the year.

Something new was added to the band schedule this year. A lawn concert was added to the Sweezy Day festivities by Mr. Christianson.

The band has for many years been attempting to establish itself as one of the outstanding organizations in the Northwest and, backed by its fine record, is rapidly beginning to assume this position.

The 70-voice choir picked this year from over 150 voices toured the state in two separate concerts, one in March and the other in May.

During winter and spring quarters the choir performed several times for the college presenting the "Coffee Cantata" and "Sleepers Awake."

Under the direction of Mr. Stephen Hobson, the men's choir did an excellent job of performing on the tour and at the concert presented at Central.

For the first time in many years a girls choir was formed. They did not have the opportunity to perform on tour but did a fine job with the numbers they sang during the campus concert.

Sigma Mu Epsilon

Sigma Mu Epsilon is an organization created for people interested in music. It had its beginning on the campus of Central Washington College in 1936.

Kappa Pi

The Alpha Beta chapter of Kappa Pi affiliated with the National Kappa Pi Honorary Art Fraternity in the year 1941.

The purpose of this organization is to provide an opportunity for art students to meet and work together for their common interests, and to honor them as the artists they are.

Requirements for membership are thirty hours of art, junior class standing, and a B average. However, freshmen are admitted as provisionals and sophmores as pledges.

Memorable events of the year on the central campus included the installation of the pledges as Kappa Pi members in a formal initiation ceremony during fall quarter; the winning of third prize for their homecoming sign, building of a float for Homecoming, and giving of the annual Art Bazaar in December. The organization also joined with the art department in a trip to a water color exhibit at the Seattle Art Museum in May.

Three members of Central's Alpha Beta chapter winning recognition in the Regional Kappa Pi Art Exhibit were Donald Scott, Milton Dallman and Lloyd Miller.

Club members also worked on the mural which was painted under the direction of Miss Sarah Spurgeon and was presented to the college in June.

Besides their campus activities Kappa Pi also decorates for Rigadoon dances, a community organization.

At that time a constitution was drawn up and by-laws drafted. Plans were also made for the following year in which the organization really got its start.

The F.T.A. chapter is designed to develop ideals and power in the lives of its members, to enrich the spirit of college life, to advance the interests of the teaching profession, to promote the welfare of children, and to foster the education of all people. Any student majoring in education is eligible to join the organization.

Radio Club

The Central radio club, the College Broadcasters, has acted as a very effective agent for the college since its organization in the fall of 1949.

The purpose of this organization is to acquaint the people of the community with college activities and functions, to learn the professional techniques of radio, and, in addition, to use the club as a non-participant group in all the campus and community activities.

It has operated through the facilities of KXLE. Beginning with the homecoming events of 1949, including the coronation of the queen, the College Broadcasters' programs included a talent show, an amateur show, a one-act play, a style show, and a Sweezy hit parade.

Success has been a mark of the club from its meager beginnings with the promotion of different clubs and school activities which has kept the organization very busy during its initial year. Besides the half-hour programs broadcasted every month there were fifteen minute programs every Tuesday night on which Dick Norman and Dominica Rossetti interviewed faculty members and prominent students on the Central campus.

Officers for the year included: Dick Norman, president; Ben Jarrett, vice-president; and Dominica Rossetti, secretary-treasurer.

Recreation Club

The recreation club was started in the fall quarter of 1949 and is open to recreation majors and those minors who prove themselves eligible. The purpose of this club was to help the school with all its recreational functions such as Sweezy Day, Dad's Day, dances, and half-time entertainment for games. The club also works as a coordinating center for ideas and suggestions which will help recreation people.

Mr. Shelly Kem is advisor for the club. The following people held office for the first year: President, Don Duncan; Vice-president, Russ Porter; Secretary, Nadine Powell; Treasurer, Bill Wilkinson.

Maskers and Jesters

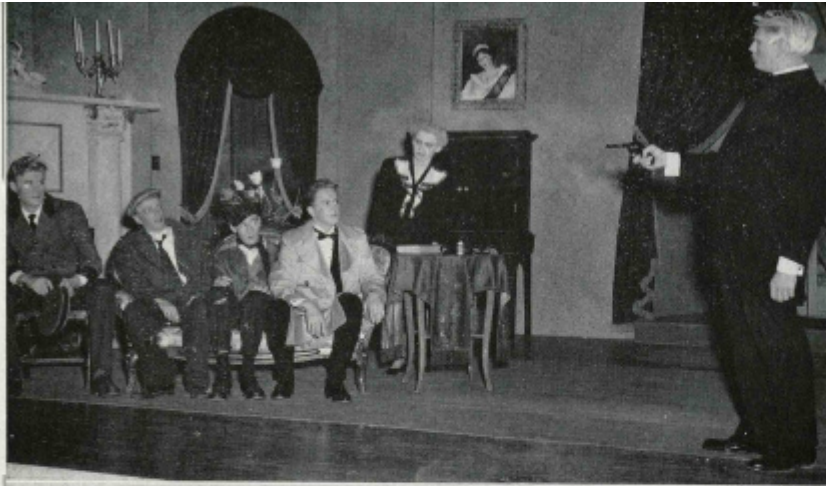

The Maskers and Jesters organization had its beginning in 1936 when Russell W. Lemke, the speech professor at C.W.C.E. at that time, organized the club to recognize merit, stimulate interest in the theater, and to provide opportunities for social enjoyment.

Some of the earliest members of Maskers and Jesters, now local townspeople, are Warren Kidder, Kathleen Kelleher, and Bob Love.

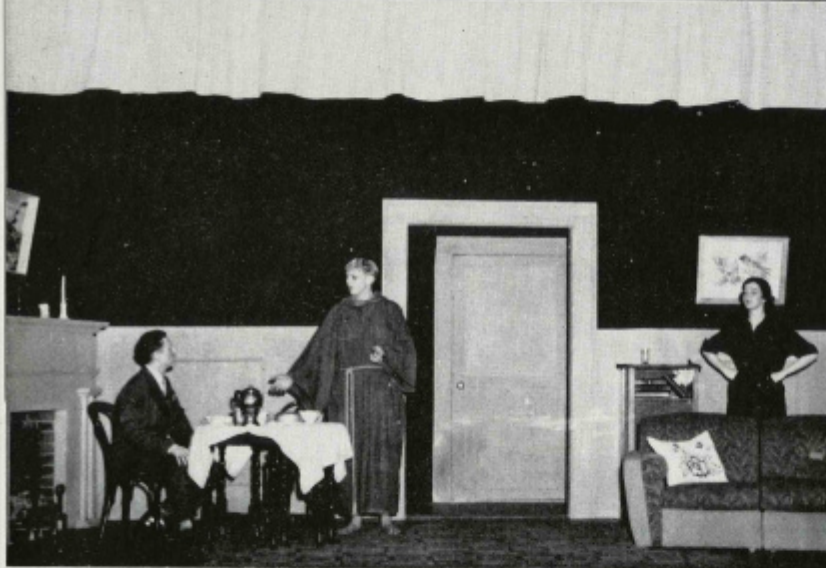

This year Maskers and Jesters has provided for in between acts at Homecoming and the play "Pure as the Driven Snow." They also took second prize on their float in the Homecoming parade. Two one-act plays were presented during the year. A formal dance was held in the spring. Every Thursday at 1 a.m. the coffee pot was kept going in the Little Theater for members and friends. Several initiations were held throughout the year.

Some time in the near future it is the aim of the Maskers and Jesters to present a full three-act play for the enjoyment of the school.

Officers for the year of 1949-1950 were: Evelyn Offield, Master Masker; Mary Horton, Minor Masker; Marilyn Dreher, Pen Masker; Don Fenton, Money Masker; Gene Parsons, Fun Masker; Norman Howell, Advisor.

Kamola Hall elected Edee Sandberg, president; Donna Sears, vice-president; Margaret Flanagan, secretary; Carole Peuter, treasurer; Marilyn Dreher, representative; and Jean Goodrich and Judy Kangas, social commissioners.

The dorm won first prize at the new Christmas Song Contest in December with their rendition of "Winter Wonderland."

In the spring the annual Kamola Tole, "Pixie Paradise," was held in the gym. The dance was highly entertaining with green pixies cavorting among the toadstools. This event was really the climax of a wonderful year full of many gay parties held in the different wings of the hall.

 Row 3—Ross Jackson

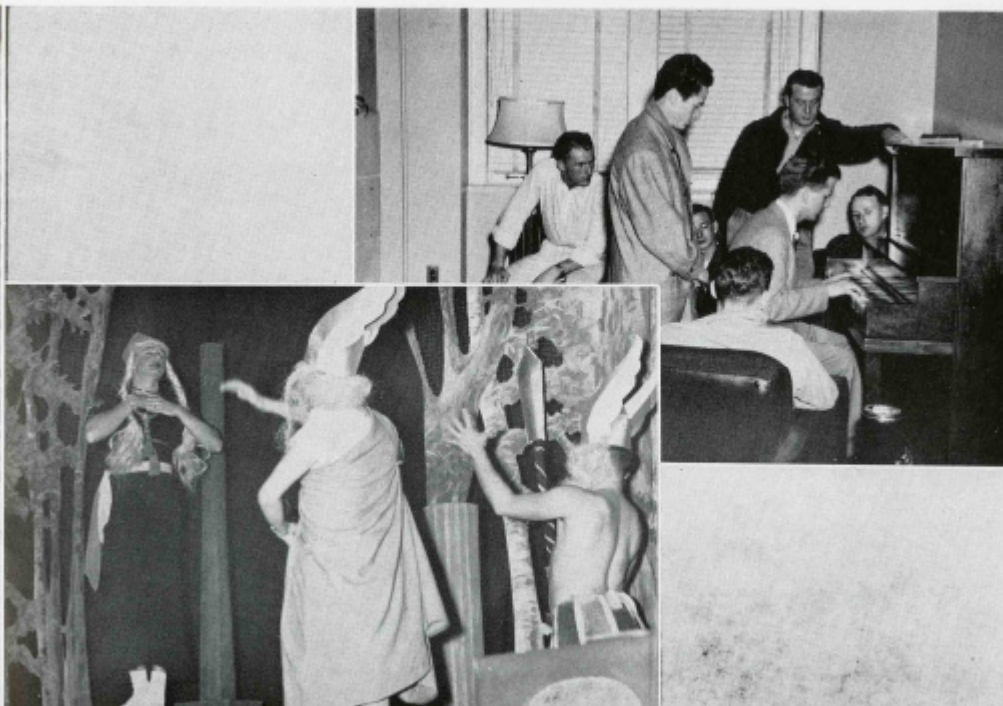

Munson Hall, oldest men's hall on the Central Washington Campus, elected the following men to lead the dormitory for the year: Vic Moore, Max Weed, Jack Hawkins, Dale Scott, Ed Adams, and Ross Jackson.

Munson Hall held up its tradition by again winning first prize for its sign, a test-your-strength device lighted to spell wildcats.

Munson Hall also held it's first open house in several years with a very large turnout. The dorm also held a fireside and several dances in the recreation room.

The high spot of the year was the annual Munson picnic which was held at the Columbia River this year.

Sue Lombard

Second Row—Barbara George, Laura Alm, Joanne Pennington, Mary Lou Dunn

Sue Lombard started fall quarter with the traditional initiation of freshman girls. Following this, Sue girls began work on entries for a sign, skit and float for Homecoming.

The cheery fireplace at Sue was lit many times during winter quarter for planned and impromptu fireside. Outstanding was Sue's Sun Valley open fireside. Also enjoyed was an exchange skating party and fireside with Montgomery Hall, and later the Cocktail co-sponsored with Kamola at the campus club.

Spring quarter's activities were centered around the annual Sue house dance.

Many after-hour parties sponsored by the separate wings were enjoyed by the whole dorm throughout the year. Included in these were Halloween, Christmas, and Valentines Day parties.

Officers for the year were: Ruth Dougherty, president; Jackie White, vice-president; Norma Symmonds, secretary; Barbara George, treasurer; Shirley Riddle and Lee Newcomb, social commissioners; Joan Pennington, assistant. Also added to the house council was a courtesy chairman, Rae Roath; and wing counsellors, Joan Brown, Mary Lou Dunn, and Eva Eyres.

Kennedy

Housemother, Joan Anderson, Margaret Aerni,

Kennedy Hall became the latest addition to the campus living groups on completion of the new dorm in October of 1948.

Initiation of the freshman girls started the year and was quickly followed by the activities of Homecoming which included a sign and a float. Among other activities held this year by the hall were the traditional dance "Pumpkin Promenade" given with Monroe Hall, a fireside with Alford Hall, open houses, and the Kennedy formal in May. The Kennedy Choir also entered and won recognition in the Christmas Song Fest. In addition to these planned activities the hall enjoyed many an impromptu serenade by the boys dorms, a large scale snowball fight, and cooperated with the other Walnut street dorms on such things as Christmas caroling, a wedding shower, and a Walnut street picnic. Another worthwhile project of the enterprising girls at Kennedy was the completion of a recreation room in the basement of the hall.

Alice Feller, Lois Dryden, Housemother,
Mary Nelson, Peggy Whited, Shirley Marr,
Marian Cross

Elwood's three successful firesides and the two all college dances sponsored by it exhibit the traditional spirit and feeling of cooperation felt by each of its girls.

The old adage "good things come in small packages" holds true for Elwood, for the twenty-nine girls worked together to win honorable mention during Homecoming, third place in the song fest, and first prize for Christmas decorations. The closing of the school year was highlighted by the barbecue held in May.

Officers fall quarter were: President, Mary Nelson; vice president, Alice Feller; secretary-treasurer, Joyce Ferguson; social commissioner, Lois Dryden.

Officers winter quarter were: President, Shirley Marrs; vice president, Delma Tomsic; secretary-treasurer, Marion Cross; social commissioner, Peggy Whitehead.

Officers spring quarter were: President, Marie Nelson; Vice president, Marge Pugsley; secretary-treasurer, Dolores Yeager; social commissioner, Maxine Hart.

Vetville

This year the residents of Vetville welcomed many newcomers into their midst as many of last year's population were graduated.

Life at Vetville revolves around good comradship among families residing there, so parties and gatherings were numerous throughout the year. These social functions were greatly enjoyed by all.

Vetville athletes have participated wholeheartedly in all inter-mural sports and have greatly enjoyed doing so.

A. J. Dieter, served as mayor for the year.

Around 1925, (exact date unknown) Off-Campus Women's Club was formed at Central. The need for more cooperation from the off-campus students was the purpose of organizing this club. OCW is a service organization. The annual activities of the club are: Who's Who publication, Winter Carnival, May Prom, Graduation Flower committee, and participation in the Mother's Day Festivities.

This year's officers include: Barb Watson, president; Helen Carney, vice president; Martha Williams, secretary; Ann Sellwood, treasurer; Soc. Comm. KAAGS

The Off-campus men have re-organized the past year and have formed a group known as Kaags. They have made themselves recognizable by their new white sweaters and black and white Kaag shields.

New members of the organization can be spotted by the large wooden sword and shield they are required to carry during initiation.

The organization held its Kaag banquet at the Diamond F during the spring.

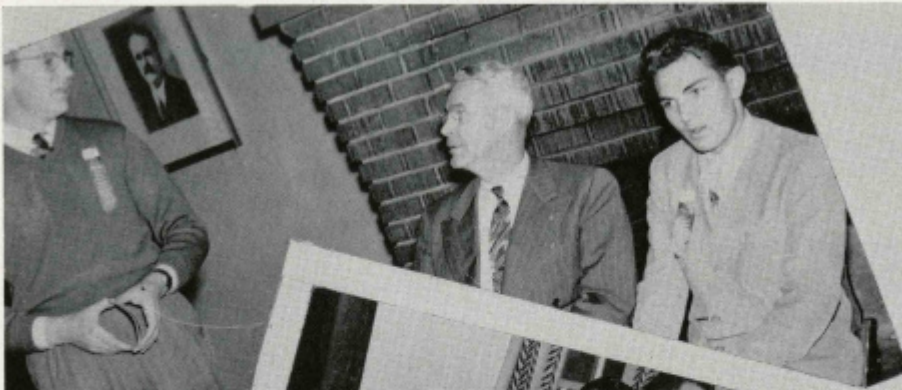

Officers for the year were: Dale Moberg, president; Larry Hamlin, vice-president; Gene Busby, secretary; Chuck Laws, treasurer; Dick Muzzall, social advisor; Bill Behler, club reporter; Jerry Houser, SGA Representative; and the advisor was Mr. Ludtke.

Tennis

Coach Leo Nicholson's netsters had a very successful conference slate this year. Out of ten meets they came out on top in all but one. They placed fourth in the conference meet.

The team was made up of Don Duncan, LeRoy Isherwood, Al Adams, Buz Rodman and Bernie Norton. Rodman compiled the best record of the five by not dropping any conference matches. Duncan, team captain, went to the semi-finals in the conference before being eliminated by John DuPriest of CPS, the ultimate champion.

Isherwood is the only graduating senior of the group.

Central's thinclads did not have too successful a season in 1950. They just won two meets, placed fifth in the conference meet, and third in the St. Martin's relays.

Top performers for the Wildcats were Eric Beardsley, pole vault, javelin, broad jump and shot; Orland Anderson, pole vault; Rich Neiworth, high jump; Andy Taggart, high hurdles; Chuck Wolther, mile; Jerry Bailey, half mile; Dave Duclaw, shot and discus; George Pennell, sprints and quarter mile; and Bill Wilkinson.
